

ORSC™

Path: Vision & Potential

Overview

This is about working at multiple levels to take the relationship or organisation forward. Relationships are inherently generative--they produce something the moment two or more people get together. What is created may be feelings or stories or plans or ideas. In business, it is crucial both to acknowledge the feelings and to manifest action. In this course you will focus on partnerships as a creative force, and examine sophisticated concepts like the Path of Relationship, Quantum Physics and Dreams while exploring how to create a shared vision and a strategic plan for achieving that vision.

The Path of Relationship

Relationships, personal and professional, are paths to growth. In order to maximize the power and potential of relationships, one must understand the different levels of reality in which relationship dwells, and then become more fluid at moving among those levels. In this course, you will learn how to help your clients choose what they create.

Conflict Management

The Path Course also provides tools for working with conflict, which is so crucial anytime you're dealing with relationships.

Since most conflicts arise when people don't share a vision or the same "consensus reality," the first step to mitigating conflict is to be aware of those differences. During this three-day course, you'll have the opportunity to practice using several tools that will turn conflict into a powerful engine for growth.

Myths

Myths are powerful and archetypal narratives that shape our reality. As relationship systems evolve, inevitably new myths take shape, some of which can create an identity crisis as the individuals within the system continue to act from the "original myth," when in fact, they already occupy a new one. In Path you'll explore how to locate a "myth crisis" and then work with your client to manifest the new myth.

"I've been using ORSC in my work for nearly a decade, and it rocks! My practice is enormously successful and I feel fulfilled having taken the courses and applied the contents with hundreds of couples over thousands of hours of coaching calls, as well as fortune 500 companies, non profits and governmental agencies. This stuff works!"
